Overland Park Marriott Receives High Praise From Recent Guests

By going above and beyond for guest needs, this Kansas City hotel exemplifies Marriott's "spirit to serve" philosophy

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., May 7, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Throughout the last few months, numerous guests have expressed complete satisfaction for their experiences at Overland Park Marriott, a sophisticated hotel in Overland Park, Kansas. From dedicated event planners to housekeeping staff, the members of this lodging destination set the standard for Marriott's core values.

One guest spent 10 days at the hotel for meetings this past winter and spoke high praises of the attention to detail the on-site meeting planner, Lindsay Ball-Lewis, paid to their group to ensure meetings were executed without a hitch. She also said no matter where they were in the hotel, anytime they passed a Marriott employee, the employee greeted them and offered assistance.

Another, who spent an extended stay at the Overland Park lodging destination, said, "I felt the welcome and warmth the moment I walked into the hotel that first cold, Sunday night in December. Everyone is present, welcoming, friendly, helpful and greets customers by their name!"

As a whole, Marriott International believes its strength as a hospitality company is rooted in its core values: putting people first, pursuing excellence, embracing change, acting with integrity and serving the world. By acting on these core values, the employees at Overland Park Marriott ensure every guest feels respected and receives exemplary treatment not found at other nearby hotels.
